- 34. Section 2, Art.3(a) and (b) may not be altered in any case, as these fundamental objectives exist as the foundation in which the Association is defined legally.
- 35. Should the Association be dissolved in all other manners, it shall become similar to that of another association, with addition to Section 2, Art.3(a) and (b).

SECTION XII: Legal Application of these By-Laws

36. When conflicts between these by-laws and ASFA's by-laws arise, ASFA's by-laws and standing regulations shall take precedence, with exception of the content found within the Constitution of the Association and only insofar as a relationship in good standing exists between the Association and ASFA.
37. Should an executive represent these by-laws in a manner that which they are not intended or in a contrary manner to which they are stated, that member will face investigation through the Judicial Committee of ASFA and the potential of removal from office pending recommendation as stated in Section 4, Art.23, Art.24 at the decision of the membership, and may face legal repercussions at the discretion of the membership.
38. Should an executive alter these by-laws without the decision of referendum (with exception to Section 2, Art.3(a) and (b) that which cannot be altered through any means as stated in Section 11, Art.9, Art.10, Art.11), that member will face investigation through the Judicial Committee of ASFA and the potential of removal from office pending recommendation as stated in Section 4, Art.23, Art.24, without the need for membership to render a final decision, and may face legal repercussions at the discretion of the membership.

Section XIII: The Sheila Mason Bursary

39. Description of the Bursary:

- a) The Sheila Mason Bursary is a non-GPA based bursary designed to provide financial aid to students, specifically women, BIPOC, and LGBTQIA+, and individuals with disabilities.
- b) The person chosen seeks to promote diversity through both academic and community initiatives within the Philosophy program. This bursary will be awarded based upon initiative(s) made by the individual to promote inclusive thought and action within Concordia's philosophy department, and/or to prioritize the exploration of queer, postcolonial, intersectional, feminist, or race theory inside or outside of class settings.
- c) This award considers the disadvantages minorities face not only in Philosophy but throughout society, understanding that the work of underrepresented peoples are often held to standards which require significant effort extending beyond that of their peers. Applications will also be considered based upon financial need, given the way that class intersects with other forms of marginalization.

40. Candidates eligible for the bursary:

- a) Only undergraduate students enrolled in a major, minor or honours program in the Philosophy Department are eligible to run in an election.

- b) Those eligible for application include: women, LGBTQAI+ (lesbian, gay, bi, trans, queer, asexual, intersex, and others included in this umbrella), BIPOC (black, indigenous, people of colour), and students with disabilities, as self-disclosed.
- c) An application form must be required, and on that application form must be included a check box indicating whether the student applicant belongs to one or more of the eligible candidate groups.
- d) Those in greater financial need will be given priority.
- e) Any student sitting on the committee for the bursary is ineligible to apply.
- f) If an individual is an executive, they may not apply for the bursary during their mandate, or during the following mandate.

41. Criteria for application:

- a) A personal statement, which must include a description of community involvement, how the individual is working towards creating an inclusive environment within philosophy, and an explanation of financial need. This must be between 500-750 words.
- b) An essay on the topic of the individual's choice, however it must explore such topics including "queer, postcolonial, intersectional, feminist, or race theory", or be relevant to the aims of the Inclusivity Project and the Bursary. This essay should be between 1500-2000 words. Work that has been written for a class may be submitted.
- c) One brief letter of recommendation from a teacher, advisor, employer, etc.
- d) C.V., updated to include information pertinent to this award, such as extra-curricular involvement. This C.V. must also include the contact information of the individual who has written your letter of recommendation.

42. Funding and Bursary Amount:

- a) The amount of the bursary will be $400.
- b) Funding for the bursary must be requested within the budget outline submitted to ASFA each year, under the section entitled "Inclusivity Project".
- c) Supplementary funding is received from the Department, at the discretion of the faculty.
- d) Any amounts not dispersed in a current year will roll over to the next academic year.
- e) The bursary committee can give out as many bursaries as there are units of $400.
- f) Any extra budget can be (but is not limited to): rolled over to the next years bursary or spent on any related extraneous expenses, at the discretion of the bursary committee.

43. Bursary Committee

- a) All members of the executive may partake in overseeing the bursary applications and decision process. However, the Sustainability and Inclusivity Advisor is mandated to oversee the bursary process and ensure that this bursary process is followed each year.
- b) An open and public call for the bursary committee will be made no later than one month prior to the application opening.
- c) The committee positions will be filled by a majority vote at a duly convened meeting of the executive.
- d) If the committee is not filled by student applicants, then executives must fill the position(s).
- e) The bursary committee may be comprised of no less than four (4) people:
  - i. One professor
  - ii. Three students, including the Sustainability and Inclusivity Advisor.
- f) Graduate students may sit on the bursary committee.
- g) The bursary committee must ensure during every step of the process that deliberation upon the bursary recipient is done in a fair and impartial manner.
- h) Any individual applying for the bursary may not sit on the bursary committee.

44. Announcement, Deadline, and Award Date:

- a) The bursary availability must be announced no later than 1 January.
- b) The deadline for applying is 17 March, six weeks prior to 28 April. This deadline may be subject to change for future years, if the number of applications greatly increases and more time is required for deliberation upon the recipient.
- c) All applicants will be notified by email regarding the acceptance or rejection of their application no less than one week prior to 28 April.
- d) The bursary will be given to the recipient in cheque form on 28 April, at which time it will be presented in tandem with the Vladimir Zeman award.

The SoPhiA Constitution

Established January 2016

This document was written by the Executive Body of SoPhiA, voted and passed in favor by the Membership. The contents should be recognized as governing documents, that which shall be held as constitutional facts of the Association, in coordination with the Association's legally binding by-laws. This document may be called upon in circumstances wherein the by-laws lack directive, and may be referenced thoroughly in all proceedings of the Association. The by-laws of the Association should be read in context of the Constitution, and should never be seen as separate documents to one another, but rather collaborative in their essence. This document may be amended with vote of the Membership, but at no point should be amended to include the restriction of rights of the Membership's interests nor should it be amended to clauses that which could lead to Membership losses. These guidelines here above may not be amended to state otherwise. All definitions in this document should be interpreted as cited in the legal by-laws of this Association.

1. NAME OF THE ASSOCIATION shall remain legally as, L'Association des Étudiantes et Étudiants de Philosophie à l'Université Concordia and/or The Association of Students of Philosophy at the University of Concordia, or in abbreviation "SoPhiA".

2. THE AIMS OF THE ASSOCIATION shall be to represent the collective interests of its Members, to work toward attaining gains for its Members, and most fundamentally protect its Members from losses. While doing so, the Association seeks to, at the same time, create a sustainable environment for all students in which the study of Philosophy is explored and practiced with both inclusivity and advancement in mind. The Association will seek to build spaces that which invite, include and welcome all individuals of all backgrounds, facilitate the evolving nature, thought and discourse of the many schools of thought found in Philosophy and to provide, to the best of its ability, the environment in which these explorations can be rooted in a respectable and academic pursuit. Finally, the Association will act at all times, as an advocate for both the Membership as a whole and as well the individual student in whatever need shall be expressed, directly or indirectly of the Association as an institutional representation while still in line with the principles expressed within this document.

3. THE PRINCIPLES OF THE ASSOCIATION shall be to act in good faith to every circumstance, decision and motivation of the Membership. The Association and its Executive Body shall represent collectively the principles expressed through its motions fairly and without prejudice.

4. PRINCIPLES OF ACTION:

The Association, its Executive Body and by extension, the Membership shall abide, in good faith, by the following principles of action:

- a) The Association shall not act in a way as to disrupt, challenge or disqualify the identities of any student within Concordia University. This is to say, the Association will act in an inclusive manner and work toward building spaces of inclusivity without prejudice toward the race, religion, gender, sexuality, culture or ability of any of its members.
- b) The Association shall act to take its membership decisions with the most seriousness and to represent those collective interests in daily life to the best of its ability, without prejudice. This is to say, the Association will not hamper the collective interests expressed and voted in favor by the Membership in its regular or special meetings.
- c) The Association shall act in advocacy of its fellow members in their needs and challenges throughout the time of membership – the Association thus will not abandon any member from fair representation in both the Association itself, the Department and as well the University.
- d) The Association shall act in a manner of environmental sustainability and act, to the best of its ability, with the environment as a formal priority to all their events, meetings and ways of action. This is to say, the Association will seek out sustainable and environmental-friendly means in which to express themselves, hold gatherings, meetings and events and in which to have general or special meetings.
- e) The Association shall act, to the best of their ability, in favor of sustainable and ethical purchasing and hiring practices within their operations. The Association thus, will advocate against unethical hiring, working conditions and wage disputes within the University of Concordia. Further, the Association will work toward purchasing ethical products free of animal cruelty and eco-friendly.
- f) The Association shall not act in a manner of emotional, psychological or physical aggression or violence toward any other Student of Concordia University.
- g) The Association shall not act in a manner of sexual, gendered or racial violence toward any other Student of Concordia University.

5. PRINCIPLES OF REPRESENTATION:

The Association, its Executive Body, and by extension the Membership shall abide, in good faith, by the following principles of representation:

- a) The Association shall represent the Membership only on positions taken through a vote of the Members during a General or Special General Assembly; □

- i. With exception to the positions taken in ASFA Council insofar as these positions are in line with the Principles of Action, Aims and Objectives of the Association. Any position that presents controversially or is not represented within this document, should be abstained from and brought before a General or Special Assembly.
- b) The Association will seek to represent the Membership where the Membership may gain and to protect its Membership from loss.
- c) An Executive Body, the physical manifestation of a Membership's representation, cannot decline to represent its Membership, as its Membership demands – should such a circumstance arise in that an Executive Member decline to represent Membership on an issue, or in that they represent Membership contrary to the collective decision, this Executive Member must resign from their position immediately.
- d) The Association shall not seek to represent the Members without consent – this consent can only be met during the General or By-Elections held annually and is manifested in the form of an Executive Body.
- e) The Association shall not seek to represent the Members in positions without consent – this consent can only be met during Special or General Assemblies and only in the way of a simple majority vote in favor of a position;
  - ii. Unless such a vote requires a super-majority of a 2/3 vote in favor.
- f) The Association will seek to represent the diverse nature of all its Members interests, in doing this it will provide and facilitate the spaces and discussions for all positions to be expressed fairly and without prejudice in order to attain an informed expressed collective decision.
- g) The Association may not represent an individual interest in opposition to the collective interests, as the Association acts as a manifestation of the collective interest of its Membership not of its own personal preferences or positions.
  - iii. The Executive Body may advocate for diverse positions in the confines of a Special or General Assembly of its Memberships, but may not act contrary to the Memberships collective interests while acting as a legally elected Executive Member.
  - iv. The Membership may act in favor of their own individual interests in every circumstance – insofar as those interests do not act contrary to the principles of action cited within this document, or contrary to the Quebec Charter of Human Rights – but shall seek to respect collective decisions taken by Membership.

6. Principles of the Executive Body:

The Executive Body, which is the physical manifestation of Membership interests as elected by the Association's membership annually, shall abide, in good faith, to the following principles of the Executive Body:

- α. The Executive Members will at all times, represent entirely, honestly and in good faith the collective interests of the Membership as prescribed during any Special or General Assembly. Thus, the Executive Members will not act to disrupt, alter or represent dishonestly these interests – regardless of personal preferences, interests or political identities.

- β. The Executive Members will at all times, act in an inclusive and non-discriminating way to all Members regardless of their race, religion, sexuality, gender, culture or ability. The Executive Members will at all times, seek to represent the interests of each Member where that Member is unable to, with the consent and consultation of the Member.
- χ. The Executive Members will take with great seriousness and professionalism any expressed need for advocacy, support or action in the circumstances of sexual, gendered, racist or discriminatory violence of any nature and will immediately take action to address, investigate and resolve any problems of this nature without prejudice against Members expressing these needs.
- δ. The Executive Members will participate upon election to their position, consent workshops aimed at sexual assault prevention, as determined by ASFA and the Concordia Student Union.
- ε. Should an allegation or denunciation of sexual, racist or gendered violence be officially launched against any Executive Member that Member must resign until the allegations against them are resolved, while both parties are being provided with advocacy, and resign entirely if a recommendation is made against them by a gender advocacy and/or sexual assault resource center (see by-laws).
- φ. The Executive Members will work collaboratively always, at any point should the potentiality for collaboration be threatened, the Executive Members will work together to repair communicative break downs and establish a safe, collective and positive space in which to continue their duties.
- γ. The Executive Members shall not accept bribes or compensation for their duties while serving on the Executive Body. The Executive Body shall be seen as a non-reimbursed and non-paid position, and at no point should an Executive Member represent their position as being one open for financial payment.
- h. The Executive Members will honor this constitution, the legal by-laws honestly, in good faith and without dilution to their membership, administration, the University and on behalf of themselves.
